

Mr. Panagiotis Alevras is a senior executive with 30 years of experience. Served as CEO of Olympic Handling, senior manager of Athens International Airport and project manager for the Athens 2004 Olympic & Paralympic Games. His involvement on airport Greenfield and expansion projects helped him earn senior leadership, management capability, operational and technical proficiency. Senior/project manager on airport infrastructure and development projects, including the concession of the 14 Greek regional airports, the preparation of the bid for the New Heraklion airport, and numerous assignments abroad (Kuwait, Vietnam, Belgium, Russia, UK, UAE, Albania and Germany). Visiting Lecturer at Aristotle University of Thessaloniki.